

Kevin O'Regan/Fuchsia Footwear visual guides for Adults

Supported by

SuperValu

Developed by

Kevin O'Regan's is a shoe shop in Clonakilty. If I need to get new shoes, I might come here to buy them. There is a sign on the front of the shop saying Kevin O'Regan. It also says Siopa Bróg and Fuchsia Footwear. I go into the shop using the front door.

Supported by

SuperValu

Developed by

Inside the shop there are lots of different shoes on display. The shoes have price tags on them, so customers know how much they cost.

Supported by

SuperValu

Developed by

They also sell some bags in the shoe shop.

Supported by

SuperValu

Developed by

AS I AM .IE

If I see shoes I like, I will need to get my size. I can pick up the shoe, and ask someone who works in the shop

Developed by

Supported by

SuperValu

I might be unsure what my shoe size is. This is ok. Someone working in the shop can help me check my shoe size. They will use this measuring device to check what size my feet are.

Supported by

SuperValu

Developed by

The staff member will ask me to take off my shoe, and put my foot onto the measuring device. I might not want to take my shoes off, but this is ok. It will not take long to check my shoe size and I can soon put my shoes back on.

Supported by
SuperValu

Developed by

Once the staff member knows my size, they can go into the back and check if they have the shoes in stock in my size.

They will then bring the shoes out to me in shoe boxes. I can try them on to make sure they are comfortable.

If they don't have my size, that is ok. The staff member can show me other similar shoes.

If I want to buy the shoes, I can pay for them at the till.

Supported by
SuperValu

Developed by

I can pay using money or my card. If there is a queue I can wait my turn.

Supported by

SuperValu

Developed by

Once I've paid for my shoes, they will be put in a bag and I can take them home. I say thank you and goodbye, and I leave the shop.

Supported by

SuperValu

Developed by

I can pay for the item(s)
with money or with my card.

Supported by

SuperValu

Developed by

The till has a scanner, which might beep or flash red. This is ok, it is just checking the price code for the item

When I have paid for it I say Thank You and can take what I have bought home with me.

When I am leaving the shop I can say Goodbye and leave through the front door.