

The Courtyard Bar

visual guides

Clonakilty The Courtyard Bar

Supported by

SuperValu

Developed by

AS I AM .IE

Me and _____ park in the carpark and walk to the entrance of the courtyard bar.

Inside, there is a bar. I walk to the bar.

Supported by

SuperValu

Developed by

There is a staff member behind the bar. They can help me.

I can take a seat inside

Supported by

SuperValu

Developed by

Outside the front of building, beside the entrance....

Or, out the back of the building.

Supported by

SuperValu

Developed by

There is also a quiet area inside if I feel too overwhelmed and need to take a break.

Developed by

Supported by

SuperValu

When I am sitting, I can read the menu. The menu tells me what food or drink I can buy here.

Supported by

SuperValu

Developed by

A waitress will come and take my order. I wait. When my food is ready, the waitress will bring it to my table.

Supported by
SuperValu

Developed by

When I am finished eating, I must pay.
To pay, I go to the bar.

The staff member will tell me how much I need to pay.

I give my money or card to her and she gives me my change and receipt.

Supported by

SuperValu

Developed by

If I need to use the bathroom, there is one near the entrance to the bar.

