

The Fig & Olive Café

visual guides

My Visit to Clonakilty Fig & Olive Café

Supported by

SuperValu

Developed by

AS I AM .IE

This is 'The Fig and Olive Café'. It sells foods like cakes, sandwiches, soups and hot and cold drinks

Supported by
SuperValu

Developed by

At the counter I can choose what I would like to eat. I can ask for food or a drink here. The menus is also written on the board behind the counter.

Supported by

SuperValu

Developed by

I stand in the line and wait for the waitress to ask for my order. The foods can have lots of different smells. I can use the air freshener from the sensory survival box, or hold my nose.

Supported by

SuperValu

Developed by

After I order my food, I can pay for it at the till.

Supported by

SuperValu

Developed by

AS I AM .IE

I can then go to the end of the counter where I can pick my cutlery.

Supported by
SuperValu

Developed by

I can sit and wait in the seating area for my food. It can be noisy sometimes, but I can wear earplugs or sit outside.

Supported by

SuperValu

Developed by

There are some toys I can play with while I wait.

Supported by

SuperValu

Developed by

Supported by

SuperValu

Developed by

There is also a children's play area.

I enjoy my trips to
The Fig & Olive

